Defendant.)

Defendant PRINCE THEO JOHNSON, by and through his counsel Geri Lynn Green and Assistant United States Attorney Christine Wong, hereby stipulate and agree that the sentencing hearing scheduled for June 17, 2009, 2:30 p.m. be continued to July 15, 2009, 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Johnson is a defendant who suffers from a variety of medical and mental health issues and is at times one at high risk for suicide attempts. Consequently, more time is necessary to provide information to the Court regarding his need for medical and mental health care prior to sentencing. This is particularly important here in order to provide the necessary information to the Bureau of Prisons to facilitate an effective treatment regimen while in their custody.

Defense counsel has requested and is awaiting medical records from the Alameda County Jail,

1 that will shed light on this process. Defense counsel has further developed information to inform the
2 Court of the needs of this defendant to facilitate a smooth transfer and appropriate sentencing concerns.
3 The requested documentation has yet to arrive as well as some of the assessments necessary. It is
4 therefore requested that the sentencing hearing in this matter be continued until July 15, 2009.

5 In light of the defendant's improved mental state, and treatment regimen at the County Jail, he
6 has agreed to the continuance as has the government who has graciously agreed to the requested
7 continuance.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
